Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Regulations: General Overview

School district can violate Title IX when “sexual harassment” occurs:

- In a district’s education program or activity; i.e., locations, events, or circumstances where the district has substantial control over the alleged harasser and the context in which the alleged conduct occurred;
- By any person, against any person in the United States;
- Any district employee has notice of the allegations of sexual harassment (“actual knowledge”); and
- The district is deliberately indifferent in its response

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a)

Sexual Harassment

- Amended Title IX regulations explicitly define sexual harassment and establish detailed procedures for how school districts must respond to allegations of sexual harassment

20
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Sexual Harassment is defined as conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one of more of the following:

- (1) An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the district on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (quid pro quo);
- (2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies the person equal access to the district's education program or activity (hostile environment); or
- (3) "Sexual assault" as defined in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v), "dating violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), "domestic violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or "stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30)

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a) 21

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Sexual Harassment

Previous OCR Guidance

- Unwelcome conduct
- Determined by a reasonable person
- Severe, pervasive, or persistent and to interfere with or limit a student's ability to participate in or benefit from school services, activities, or opportunities

Amended Title IX Regulations

- Unwelcome conduct
- Determined by a reasonable person
- So severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person's equal access to the educational program or activity

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a)

22
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Sexual Harassment

- “Sexual Assault” defined as forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v))
- “Dating Violence” defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship (34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10))

23
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Sexual Harassment

- “Domestic Violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction (34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8))

24
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Sexual Harassment

- “Stalking” defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress (34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30))

25
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Sexual Harassment

Examples:

- Touching
- Crude jokes or pictures
- Discussions of sexual experiences
- Teasing related to sexual characteristics
- Spreading rumors related to a person’s alleged sexual activities
- Rape
- Sexual battery
- Sexual abuse
- Sexual coercion

26
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Education Program or Activity

- Schools must respond when sexual harassment occurs in the school's education program or activity, against a person in the United States
  - Example: District-sponsored trip abroad?
- For K-12 purposes, an education program or activity includes any location, event, or circumstance over which the district exhibits substantial control over both the alleged harasser and the context in which the harassment occurred
  - Examples: school, field trip, extracurricular activity

34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)

27
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Education Program or Activity

- Concern that narrowly defining the scope of districts' duty to respond to sexual harassment could ignore impact of technology and impact districts' obligations to address bullying or cyber-harassment based on state legislation
- In response, OCR issued commentary addressing this concern

28
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

“[S]exual harassment definition does not make sexual harassment dependent on the method by which the harassment is carried out; use of e-mail, the internet, or other technologies may constitute sexual harassment as much as use of in-person, postal mail, handwritten, or other communications.”

U.S. Dep’t of Educ., OCR, Title IX Regulations Addressing Sexual Harassment (Unofficial Copy), (May 6, 2020), www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/titleix-regs-unofficial.pdf (p. 441-442)

29
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Coordinator

- Amended Title IX regulations require districts to designate and “authorize” an employee to coordinate the district’s efforts to implement the law
- The employee is to be identified as the “Title IX Coordinator”
  - PRESS Policies updated to include “Nondiscrimination Coordinator/Title IX Coordinator”

34 C.F.R. § 106.8(a)

30
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Coordinator

- Typically, districts do not employ a full-time Title IX Coordinator
- Designated employee(s) usually combine Title IX Coordinator responsibilities with other assigned duties
- Consider adding “Title IX Coordinator” to existing job title of currently designated employee(s) and reviewing job duties to ensure sufficient authority and time to carry out role

31
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Actual Knowledge

- A recipient (district) with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity against a person in the United States must respond promptly and in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent
- Expanded to notice of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment to any employee for K-12
- Notice also can include report of sexual harassment to Title IX Coordinator

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a)

32
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Actual Knowledge

Previous OCR Guidance

A school has a responsibility to respond promptly and effectively if a school knows or should have known about sexual harassment

Amended Title IX Regulations

A school with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in a program or activity against a person in the United States must respond promptly and in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent

For K-12 educational institutions, actual knowledge of sexual harassment is defined as notice of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment to any employee

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a)

33
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Deliberate Indifference

- A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity against a person in the United States must respond promptly and in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent
- Adopts Gebser/Davis standard – a higher legal standard (used in litigation for damages in federal court) than current OCR standard

34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)

34
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Deliberate Indifference

Previous OCR Guidance

The district must take immediate action to eliminate the sexual harassment or sexual violence, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects

Amended Title IX Regulations

The district is “deliberately indifferent” only if its response is clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances

34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)

35
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Deliberate Indifference

District's response must:

- Be prompt
- Treat Complainants and Respondents equitably
- Inform Complainant of supportive measures and process for filing a Formal Complaint, by Title IX Coordinator
- Follow Title IX grievance process

36
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a)

38
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Report of Sexual Harassment

- Any person may report sexual harassment, whether or not the person reporting is the person alleged to be the victim of the conduct that could constitute sexual harassment
- May be in person, mail, phone, email, or by any means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the report
- May be made at any time, including during non-business hours
- May be verbal or written, and may be anonymous
- To the Title IX Coordinator or any district employee
- District employees must promptly forward all reports of sexual harassment to the Title IX Coordinator

- Must contain the Complainant's physical or digital signature, or otherwise indicate that the Complainant is the person filing the Formal Complaint
- If the Title IX Coordinator signs the Formal Complaint, he/she does not become the Complainant or otherwise a party to the complaint
- At the time a Formal Complaint is filed, the Complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in a district's education program or activity

34 C.F.R. § 106.30

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

40

Supportive Measures

- Purpose is to restore or preserve equal access to the district's education program or activity without unreasonably burdening the other party
- Include measures designed to protect safety of all parties or district's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment
- Non-disciplinary, non-punitive measures
  - Removing Respondent from an activity may be considered unreasonably burdensome and punitive, unless an "emergency removal"

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

41

Supportive Measures

Previous OCR Guidance

- Used terms such as "interim measures" or "interim steps" to describe measures to help a complainant maintain equal educational access
- Implied only available during pendency of investigation, did not mandate offering them, not clear if could be punitive or disciplinary, and did not clarify if available to respondents

Amended Title IX Regulations

- Now called "supportive measures"
- Non-punitive, individualized services, offered as appropriate and without charge to a Complainant or a Respondent before or after the filing of a Formal Complaint, or where no Formal Complaint has been filed

34 C.F.R. 106.30(a)

Written Notice of Formal Complaint

- District must provide additional written notice(s) to all parties if, during the investigation, the district decides to investigate allegations not included in the first written notice
- Decide whether the district will conduct investigation or appoint a qualified investigator (best practice: provide written notice of investigator if appointed)

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(2)

Hodges Loizzi

68

Complainant/Respondent Identity Unknown

- Possible scenarios:
  - Third party reports allegation of sexual harassment but does not reveal Complainant's identity
  - Complainant reports allegation anonymously
  - Complainant does not know Respondent's identity
- If unknown, written notice need not include the Complainant's or Respondent's identity
- If Complainant's or Respondent's identity later discovered, provide another written notice to all parties

69
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Step 3

1. Initial Report & Meeting with Complainant

2. Formal Complaint & Written Notice

3. Emergency Removal

4. Dismissal

5. Informal Resolution

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Emergency Removal

District may remove Respondent from the education program or activity on an emergency basis to protect a student or other individual from “an immediate threat to physical health or safety” after an individualized safety and risk analysis

- Must provide Respondent with notice and opportunity to challenge decision immediately following the removal (best practice: written notice)
- Interaction with SB 100 for Respondent-Student: must follow 105 ILCS 5/10-22.6
- Remember IDEA and Section 504 rights: emergency removal can trigger “change of placement” for Respondent-Student
- District may place Respondent-Employee on administrative leave during the pendency of a grievance process

34 C.F.R. § 106.44

Step 4

1. Initial Report & Meeting with Complainant

2. Formal Complaint & Written Notice

3. Emergency Removal

4. Dismissal

5. Informal Resolution

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Dismissal of Formal Complaint

- Amended Title IX regulations establish mandatory and discretionary reasons a Title IX sexual harassment Formal Complaint, or an allegation therein, may be dismissed during or after an investigation
- If district dismisses a Formal Complaint, written notice must be promptly provided to both parties simultaneously, including the reasons for mandatory or discretionary dismissal, and the right to appeal the dismissal

73
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Dismissal of Formal Complaint

Mandatory Dismissal – After Investigation

- If the conduct would not constitute sexual harassment as defined by the Title IX regulations, even if proved
- If the conduct did not occur in the district's program or activity
- If allegations did not occur against a person in the United States

Discretionary Dismissal – During Investigation

- If Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator at any time that s/he wishes to withdraw the Formal Complaint or any allegation therein
- If Respondent is no longer enrolled in or employed by the district
- If specific circumstances prevent the district from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the Formal Complaint or any allegation therein (e.g., passage of several years between Formal Complaint and alleged conduct; Complainant ceases to cooperate with grievance process)

Note: Dismissal under Title IX does not preclude required action under another law or Board policy

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(3) 74
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Dismissal of Formal Complaint

- Analysis Standard: Accepting all facts alleged in the Formal Complaint as true, the allegations still do not meet the definition of “sexual harassment”
- Must document rationale for dismissal to show that district is not acting in a deliberately indifferent manner
- If dismissing Formal Complaint, but investigating allegation(s) under different process, e.g., 2:260 or 7:180, include in written notice

75
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Step 5

1. Initial Report & Meeting with Complainant

2. Formal Complaint & Written Notice

3. Emergency Removal

4. Dismissal

5. Informal Resolution

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Informal Resolution Process

- Prohibited unless Formal Complaint is filed
- Allowed at any time after a Formal Complaint is filed and during the grievance process, prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility
- Cannot involve a full investigation and adjudication of the allegations
- Cannot be offered for a complaint alleging that an employee harassed a student
- Not defined, but may encompass a broad range of conflict resolution strategies, including, but not limited to, arbitration, mediation, or restorative justice

77
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Informal Resolution Process: Requirements

- Written notice to both parties disclosing:
  - Allegations
  - Informal resolution process requirements
    - Including the circumstances where parties are precluded from resuming a Formal Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint arising from the same allegations, provided, however, that at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution, any party has the right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and resume the Grievance Process for the Formal Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint
  - Any consequences resulting from participating in the informal resolution process, including the records that will be maintained or could be shared;
- Both parties provide voluntary, written consent

34 C.F.R. §§ 106.45(b)(9)(1), (2)

78

6. Investigation

7. "Cross Exam"
Question and Answer

8. Determination
of Responsibility

9. Appeal

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Investigation Requirements

When investigating a complaint and throughout the grievance process, the Investigator must:

- Ensure that burden of proof and of gathering evidence rests on the district, rather than parties
- Provide an equal opportunity for parties to present witnesses and evidence (fact and expert witnesses; inculpatory and exculpatory evidence)
- Not restrict either party's ability to discuss the allegations or gather and present evidence

34 C.F.R. §§ 106.45(b)(5)(a)-(c)

80
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Investigation Requirements

- Provide the parties with the same opportunities to have others present during interviews and other parts of the grievance process, including an advisor/attorney of their choice
- Provide, to a party who is invited or expected to attend, written notice of date, time, participants, purpose, and location of any investigative interviews or other meetings, with sufficient time to allow the party to prepare to participate

34 C.F.R. §§ 106.45(b)(5)(d), (e)

81
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Investigation Requirements

- Provide the parties (and their advisors/attorneys, if any) an equal opportunity to inspect and review any evidence obtained during the investigation that is directly related to the allegations in the Formal Complaint (including evidence the district does not intend to rely on in reaching a determination regarding responsibility, and inculpatory or exculpatory evidence)

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(5)(f)

82
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Investigation Requirements

- Prior to the completion of the investigation report, send to each party (and the party's advisor/attorney, if any) the evidence subject to inspection and review in an electronic format or a hard copy
- Provide each party with 10 days to submit a written response
- Upon receipt of a party's written response to the evidence, review the response and send a copy to the other party

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(5)(f)

Note: PRESS 2:265-AP2 specifies 10 school business days so all days within the policy and procedures are "school business days"

83
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Investigation Requirements

- Prepare an investigation report that fairly summarizes all relevant evidence
- Send the investigation report to each party (and the party's advisor/attorney, if any) the investigation report, in an electronic format or hard copy, for their review and written response
- The investigation report must be sent to the parties 10 days before the Initial Decision-Maker's determination regarding responsibility

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(5)(g)

Note: PRESS 2:265-AP2 specifies 10 school business days so all days within the policy and procedures are "school business days"

84
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Title IX Investigation Requirements

- At the conclusion of the investigation, Investigator sends to the Initial Decision-Maker in an electronic format or hard copy:
  - Formal Complaint;
  - All evidence gathered during the investigation that is directly related to the Formal Complaint's allegations (including evidence the district does not intend to rely on in reaching a determination regarding responsibility, and inculpatory or exculpatory evidence); and
  - Investigation report with any written response received from the parties

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(5)(g)

Title IX Investigation Best Practices

- Beginning an Investigation
- Conducting the Investigation
- Collecting Evidence

86
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Beginning an Investigation

- Review the allegations in the initial report and Formal Complaint
- Determine nature of the allegations:
  - “Sexual harassment” (proceed with procedures under Board Policy 2:265)
  - Harassment/discrimination on another basis (proceed with procedures under Board Policy 2:260)
  - Bullying (proceed with procedures under Board Policy 7:180)

87
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Beginning an Investigation

- Title IX Coordinator can investigate the Formal Complaint or appoint a qualified person to conduct the investigation
- Investigator should not be:
  - Individual with close relationship with Complainant or Respondent
  - Teacher or non-supervisory employee

Conducting Investigation: General Guidelines for Interviews

- Consider writing out questions or interview target topics prior to the interview
- Take your time during the interview
- Take notes during the interview; inform interviewees that you will be taking notes
- Do not audio or video record interviews
- Take note of the interviewee's mannerisms

90
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Conducting Investigation: General Guidelines for Interviews

- Start with open-ended questions to obtain what the interviewee knows
  - Follow up with specific questions about what was stated by the Complainant, Respondent, and witnesses
- Obtain sufficient details for each relevant incident, including:
  - Date and time
  - Location
  - Who was present
  - A detailed description of what occurred
  - Reaction(s) to the incident
- Follow up with Complainant, Respondent, or other witnesses, if necessary

91
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Conducting Investigation: Interviewing the Complainant

- This should be the first interview the district conducts
- Provide written notice of date, time, location, participants, and purpose of interview
- Provide the Complainant with a copy of applicable Board of Education policies/procedures
- Complainant may have any other person s/he wishes present during interview, including attorney/advisor

92
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Conducting Investigation: Interviewing the Complainant

- Ask the Complainant why s/he is reporting the incident, specifics regarding the incident
- Consider whether any precautions need to be taken during the investigation; if any additional supportive measures put in place
- Advise the Complainant to contact Title IX Coordinator if any further incidents occur

93
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Conducting Investigation: Interviewing Other Witnesses

- Provide written notice of date, time, location, participants, and purpose of interview
- Let the witness know he/she is not the target of the investigation

94
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Conducting Investigation: Interviewing the Respondent

- Provide written notice of date, time, location, participants, and purpose of interview
- Provide Respondent with a copy of applicable Board of Education policies/procedures
- Respondent may have any other person s/he wishes present during interview, including attorney/advisor

95
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Step 7

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Initial Decision-Maker

- Cannot be the Investigator or the Title IX Coordinator
- Reviews from Investigator:
  - Formal Complaint;
  - All evidence gathered during the investigation that is directly related to the Formal Complaint's allegations (including evidence the district does not intend to rely on in reaching a determination regarding responsibility, and inculpatory or exculpatory evidence); and
  - Investigation report, with any written response received from the parties
- Facilitates “cross examination” question and answer among parties
- Issues a written determination to the parties

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(7) Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

97

Hearings

- Districts are not required to conduct live hearings
- Instead, districts must provide each party the opportunity, after the completion of the investigation report, to submit written, relevant questions that the party wants asked of another party or witness, provide each party with the answers, and provide for limited follow-up questions

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(6)

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

98

“Cross Examination” Question & Answer

The Initial Decision-Maker:

- Provides the parties with written notice of the opportunity to submit written, relevant questions that a party wants asked of any party or witness; include description of the process and timelines
- Determines which questions to forward to any party or witness for answers
- If any proposed questions are excluded as not relevant, provides the proposing party with a written explanation of the decision to exclude a question as not relevant
  - Questions regarding a Complainant's prior sexual behavior or sexual predisposition are not relevant, unless such questions and evidence are offered to establish that another person committed alleged conduct or that conduct was consensual

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(6) Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

“Cross Examination” Question & Answer

- Forwards relevant questions to any party or witness with instructions to submit answers to the Initial Decision-Maker
- Upon receipt of answers to questions, provides each party with copies of the answers
- Follows the same process for the additional, limited follow-up questions from each party
- Timelines are not specified in the Title IX regulations; PRESS 2:265-AP2 uses 5 school business days for each step

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(6) Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Step 8

6. Investigation

7. "Cross Exam"
Question and Answer

8. Determination of Responsibility

9. Appeal

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Determination of Responsibility

The Initial Decision-Maker must apply the district's standard of evidence and issue a written determination of responsibility simultaneously to the parties that includes:

- Allegations that potentially constitute sexual harassment as defined in the Title IX regulations
- Description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the Formal Complaint to the determination (including notifications, interviews, methods of gathering evidence, etc.)
- Findings of fact supporting the determination

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(7)

102
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Determination of Responsibility

- Conclusions regarding application of the code of conduct to the facts
- Statement of, and a rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including:
  - A determination of responsibility;
  - Any disciplinary sanctions imposed on the Respondent; and
  - Whether remedies to restore or preserve equal access to the district's education program or activity will be provided to the Complainant
- Procedures and permissible bases for the Complainant or Respondent to appeal

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(7) Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

103

Evaluating Evidence

- Review all evidence from investigation, including the investigation report and responses from the parties, as well as additional information from the "cross examination" question and answer process
- Is there a pattern of conduct that would tend to support the allegations?
- Do not end the inquiry simply because no corroborating evidence can be found
- Make reasoned conclusions as to the evidence, including making reasoned judgments as to the parties' credibility

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

104

Reporting Determination of Responsibility

- Depending on the severity of the allegation(s), the determination of responsibility report should be prepared with the help of legal counsel
- Be aware that the report may become discoverable in subsequent litigation
- Keep the report, investigation file, and related documents as confidential as much as possible
- Disclose the report on a need-to-know basis; but must be sent to all parties simultaneously
- Title IX Coordinator is responsible for effective implementation of any remedies

105
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Step 9

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Appeal

- Must offer to both parties for dismissal of Formal Complaint, or allegations therein, and determinations of responsibility in specified circumstances:
  - Procedural irregularity
  - New evidence now available that could affect the outcome and was not reasonably available at the time of the determination
  - Conflict of interest or bias of the Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or Decision-Maker
- District may offer other bases for appeal

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Appeal

Title IX Coordinator, upon receipt of an appeal:

- Issues written notice to both parties:
  - Informing the parties that an appeal has been filed
  - Provides both parties a specified amount of time to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome
- Promptly forwards all materials relevant to the appeal to the Appellate Decision-Maker

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(8)(3)

108
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Appeal

- Appellate Decision-Maker: Board of Education or Board-appointed examiner (individual or group)
  - Must be different from Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, and Initial Decision-Maker
- Decides whether to affirm, reverse, or amend the Initial Decision-Maker's written determination regarding responsibility or the dismissal
- Issues written decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result
- Written decision must be provided simultaneously to both parties

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(8)(3)

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

109

Appeal

- Timelines are not specified in the Title IX regulations
- PRESS 2:265-AP2 uses:
  - 10 school business days as the deadline for filing an appeal, in writing, with the Title IX Coordinator by the Complainant or Respondent after receipt of the Initial Decision-Maker's written determination or the notice of dismissal
  - 30 school business days for the Appellate Decision-Maker to make its decision
  - 5 school business days after the Appellate Decision-Maker's decision to send the written decision to both parties

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

110

Appeal

Previous OCR Guidance

- Not required
- If provided, must be available to both parties

Amended Title IX Regulations

- Must offer to both parties for dismissal and determinations of responsibility in specified circumstances:
  - Procedural irregularity
  - New evidence now available that could affect the outcome and was not reasonably available at the time of the determination
  - Conflict of interest or bias of the Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or Decision-Maker
- District may offer other bases for appeal
- Appellate Decision-Maker must be different from Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or Decision-Maker
- Written notice to both parties required
- Written decision required

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(8)

111
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Other Requirements

Hodges Loizzi

- District must keep confidential the identity of a person who made a report or complaint of sexual harassment, including parties and witnesses

34 C.F.R. § 106.71

113

Does not include:

- The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment
- Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding

114
Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Recordkeeping

Must keep records for a minimum of 7 years:

Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP

Recordkeeping

- Must document district's response to each report of sexual harassment and keep for 7 years:
  - Records of any actions, including supportive measures, taken in response to a report or Formal Complaint of sexual harassment
  - Why the district's response was not deliberately indifferent
  - That measures were taken to restore or preserve equal access to the district's educational program or activity
  - If no supportive measures provided, why that was not clearly unreasonable under the known circumstances
- Remember student and personnel record requirements under State and federal law

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(10)

116

Hodges Loizzi
Eisenhammer Rodick & Kohn LLP
